

Central Pennsylvania Federal Executive Association (CPFEA)

We are a voluntary organization that welcomes all area federal employees. The purpose of the CPFEA is to improve coordination of government activities within central PA through interagency cooperation. These activities include, but are not limited to agency management, community affairs, and volunteerism.

January 2017

Welcome to the initial CPFEA newsletter publication.

Quarterly Recap:

Awards Banquet/General membership meeting was held on 3 November 2016 at Susquehanna Club. Forty federal employees and guests attended our banquet to honor our nominees and award winners. See photos at:

Outreach Booth: CPFEA Membership outreach committee, led by Donna Jarvis staffed a table at the Fall Community Membership Drive at Naval Support Activity (NSA) Mechanicsburg on 27 Oct 2016. Information on our organization was provided to ~ 200 attendees.

Membership Mixer/General Membership Meeting: Thanks to Andrea Smallacombe and Donna Jarvis for organizing the 6 Dec 2016 Membership mixer. We met for food, fun, fellowship at the EverGrain Brewing Company where we shared our purpose with potential new members. We had nine new members this past quarter so we are pleased with our progress.

Marketing/Public Relations Committee formed – created a new group to focus on Marketing, web tools, and public relations.
